NOTIFY THE COMMANDER OF THE ILLNESS OR DEATH OF ANY SIR KNIGHT.

Forward Knights of Boston

SIR KNIGHTS:

Since September 1, 1944 you have added 30 SIR KNIGHTS to the roll of your Commandery. Your Officers wish to congratulate you and ask for your continued support.

We would like to add at least 30 more and if each of you SIR KNIGHTS would:

1. Ask a business associate or friend to join your BLUE LODGE or, if you know of a demitted member, get him re-instated. This helps your BLUE LODGE and makes our order stronger and more will wish to see further light in Masonry.

2. Attend your Chapter and ask your BLUE LODGE friends to come along and get them interested in joining the CHAPTER. Tell your High Priest you will call on any demitted Companion in your neighborhood to help him get re-instated.

3. THEN tell your companion friends about BOSTON COMMANDERY and the wonderful organization that it is. If you need an application just write or phone your Commander.

4. Now, Sir Knights during the last ten years many Sir Knights have demitted for one reason or another. Your present Officers want them back and you know where they live and how to get them interested again better than we do. Call on them and then drop your Commander a line giving him the facts. We wish to be fair and we need your help. FORWARD KNIGHTS OF BOSTON.

FORWARD KNIGHTS OF BOSTON

Thank you, Sir Knights, for the part you played in making our Annual Inspection such an outstanding success.

Three hundred and eleven Sir Knights in line and a good majority in uniform.

We all should be proud of our mark of 96.2.

POPS

Knights Templars of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, for the third consecutive year, will gather at Symphony Hall in Boston, at 8.30 P.M. on June 13, 1945, to enjoy "Commandery Night" at the Pops.

No other American community has ever been able to reproduce, as do the Symphony Hall "Pops," all the pleasures of a Continental cafe, with light food, cool drinks, and a good smoke, around fraternal tables on the entire main floor of Symphony Hall, plus a concert selection of popular classics and favorite melodies played by Boston's famous Orchestra of 85 Symphony Players.

Dress informal. Make up your party, fill in the enclosed reservation slip, send your remittance, and mail — NOW!

Dinners at Masonic Temple at 5:45 P.M.

DID YOU KNOW . . .

That Em. Sir Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr., was elected Second Ceremonial Master in the Imperial Council of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine for North America? Congratulations, Bob.

That Sir Knight George Gardner was elected State Commander of the American Legion and takes office in October? Wish you success, George, and if Boston Commandery can help any just call on us.

That Sir Knight and Noble Harvey Leggee, Recorder of Aleppo Temple, and Em. Sir Harold Budreau, our own Recorder, have developed a new Boston Commandery Due Card? Send for yours now. I know you will like it.

That Sir Knight, our Senior Warden, Herman McStay was again elected President of the Tavern Players of Lynn? Nice work, Mac, you are doing a fine job!

Let us hear more about the activities of Sir Knights of Boston Commandery. We shall be glad to publish them.

FACTS ABOUT BOSTON COMMANDERY

1. That this is the One Hundred and Fortieth Annual Conclave and your Commandery is the second oldest Commandery in the Western Hemisphere.

2. That our membership as of August 31, 1945, was 802 Loyal Sir Knights and that your Commandery is the largest Commandery in this Grand Jurisdiction of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

3. That our location is in the Masonic Temple, 51 Boylston Street, which is the most central location in this grand old City of Boston.

4. That our Armory is second to none and is open most of the time, which makes an ideal meeting place.

5. That our assets in the various funds of Boston Commandery are over One Hundred and Sixty Thousands of Dollars.

6. That our initiation fee is fifty dollars, plus uniform (unless we have one that will fit you).

7. That our dues are ten dollars per year, no assessments.

ATTENTION!

SIR KNIGHTS:

We have three applications already this year. Why not give your Chapter companion an application today and let him enjoy Templarism as you do?

Tell him what Knights Templar stand for and why he should seek further light in Masonry.

If you need an application just write your Commander at Room 601, 51 Boylston Street, or phone him at Waltham 4121-M.

We have helped to win the war. Let us ask for God's guidance to help win the peace.
